There appear to be two editions of this date, or at all events variations in the title. Dr. O'Callaghan (pp. 28–29) observes that this is represented as the sixth edition, when it is actually the seventh, and reiterates the remark under the notice of an edition with a different title printed the same year. On page 28 of Dr. O'Callaghan's book, "Das Neue Testament," 1775, is stated to be the seventh edition, etc., and on page 29, same date, but a different title, the same remark occurs—that is, that too is said to be the seventh editon. Is it to be inferred that the seventh edition has variations in the title as well as the preface?

A dissertation on the more probable manner in which North America was first peopled. The authors contend that the continent received its earliest inhabitants from the Greenlanders, and nations or tribes who dwelt in the northern regions of Europe before Odin and his followers reached there. They also maintain that no emigration was made from northern Asia; and that the Esquimaux are not the most ancient people of America. The tract is evidently the introduction to a fuller treatise on the same subject.

A Letter from New England, concerning their Customs, Manners, and Religion. Written upon occasion of a Report about a Quo Warranto brought against that Government. London: Randolph Taylor. 1682. Folio, pp. (9). 52641

This remarkable letter, written with a free, flowing and gossiping pen, is signed "J. W." "It is a most extraordinary production, both for the matter it contains and its extreme rarity. The tone of it is anything but complimentary to the Bostonians, especially those belonging to the Independent Church. The writer remarks 'For lying and cheating they outvie Judas, and all the false merchants in Hell; and the worst of Drunkards may here find pot-companions enough for all their pretence to sobriety. They make a sport of cheating and look upon it as a commendable piece of ingenuity, and brag of those vile actions which others are ashamed of, commending him that has the most skill to commit a piece of roguery.' Many of the stories related of particular persons, whose initials the author gives, are not such as could be quoted. His account on the last page of the origin of a famous Boston proverb is curious, if not amusing."—BRINLEY Catalogue.

New-England's Crisis [1676]. See [Thompson (B.)]

New England's Ensigne; it being the account of Cruelty, the Professor's Pride, and the articles of their faith; signified in characters written in blood, wickedly begun, barbarously continued, and inhumanly finished, (so far as they have gone,) by the present power of a darkness possest in the priests and rulers in New England, with the Dutch also, inhabiting the same land; in a bloody and cruel birth, which the husband to the Whore of Babylon hath brought forth, by ravishing and torturing the seed of the Virgin of Israel. ... This being an account of the sufferings sustained by us in New England, (with the Dutch,) the most part of it in these two last yeers, 1657, 1658. With a letter to John Indicot, and Iohn Norton, Governor, and the Chief Priest of Boston, and another to the town of Boston. Also, the several late Conditions of a friend upon Road, Island, before, in, and after distraction; With some quæries unto all sorts of people, who want that which we have, &c. Written at Sea, by us whom the Wicked, in scorn, call Quakers, in the second month of the yeer 1659. This being a Confirmation of so much as Francis Howgill truly published in his Book, titled, The Popish Inquisition newly erected in (New) England, &c. London: Printed by T. L. for G. Calvert ... . 1659. 4to, pp. 120. J.C.B. 52756

Relates to the sufferings of the Quakers in New England. Smith's "Catalogue of Friends' Books" says this is by Humphry Norton, John Rous and John Copeland. See our Vol. VIII., No. 33363, and Bartlett's "Bibliography of Rhode Island," p. 191.

The first and one of the rarest of the series of reports from New England relative to the conversion of the aborigines. Pages 18–20 contain the Commencement Theses at the graduation of the first class, in 1642. It was reprinted verbatim with the following title:

New England's First Fruits: with Divers other Special Matters Concerning that Country. New York: Joseph Sabin. 1865. 4to, pp. (4), 47. BA. 52759

"This reprint of the first of that series of reports to the Corporation for Propagating the Gospel among the Indians of New England, known as the Eliot Tracts, has the great defect of being published without note, comment, or biographical sketch. Indeed, the whole of Mr. Sabin's reprints are unedited, and thus an excellent opportunity of adding to the common stock of knowledge regarding their bibliographical history as well as that of their author, editors, and the venerable society which printed them, was lost." —T. W. Field. I was unkind enough not to avail myself of Mr. Field's offer to do something of the kind here suggested, and I think the above specimen of Mr. Field's indifferent English will be a sufficient reason for my declination.

New News from Robinson Cruso's Island, in a Letter to a Gentleman at Portsmouth. Cruso's Island [Boston], Printed in the Year 1720. 16mo, pp. 8. B. 53297

"Dated at the end, Dec. 19th, 1720. Written by an advocate of a larger emission of bills of credit, and against the majority in the Council and the supporters of Gov. Shute in his contest with the popular party. It abounds in allusions, serious and satirical, to prominent men and measures of the time. A hit at 'the great Don Dago, the Primate-wou'd-be of our Island (like the famous Dr. S——l [Sacheverel])' and his 'old Itch of Scribbling,' seems intended for Cotton Mather, and so, perhaps, is one at a 'Clergy-man who (Commedian-like) will stand belabouring his Cushion and intermixing his Harrangue with Thunder-Bolts, while he is entertaining his peaceable Congregation with things whereof he is almost as Ignorant as I am of the Saddle Balaam rode on when his Ass spoke,' etc. When Gov. Shute, in his speech at the opening of the session, March 15, 1721, recommended measures to punish the authors of factious and seditious papers, the House answered that few or none would dare to publish such papers, 'if proper measures had been taken to discover and punish the authors of a libel, called, News from Robinson Cruso's Island, wherein the members of the House are grossly reflected upon' (Hutchinson, ii. 223). To that libel, the 'New News,' etc., was perhaps a rejoinder."—J. H. TRUMBULL.

The greater part of the edition was destroyed by fire. Vol. II. is entitled "Journal of the Legislative Council of the Colony of New York. Began the 8th day of December, 1743, and ended the 3d of April, 1775." These volumes, with the Journals of the Assembly, printed by Hugh Gaine, and the supplementary volume issued from the State press, in 1821, make up a complete series of the Legislative Journals of the Colony, from 1691 down to the Revolution. The value of the Index in this volume is the greater, as that of the Assembly Journals is of little use.

Law for the due Observance of the Lord's Day, ... 29th March, 1813. New York. 1813. 12mo, pp. 6. M. 53725

The | Laws & Acts | of the | General Assembly | for | Their Majesties Province | of | New-York, | As they were Enacted in divers Sessions, the first of | which began April, the 9th, Annoq; Domini, | 1691. | — | At New-York, | Printed and Sold by William Bradford, Printer to their Majesties, King | William & Queen Mary, | 1694. Folio, pp. 92, as first issued. 53726

In describing this excessively rare book, the first book printed in New York and the first Collection of the Laws of New York, I have followed, with a few variations, Mr. Trumbull's description of Mr. Brinley's copy (which sold for $1,600). The fortunate possessor of a copy of this work may, perhaps, find other variations. "The irregularity of the pagination and signatures—with the occasional omission of a law which had ceased to be of force, and the substitution of another in its place—renders the giving of an accurate and intelligible collation of the volume almost impossible. The printed

Table of Contents prefixed to the volume shows that, as first made up, it ended with the 'Catalogue of Fees' established in September, 1693, at the end of which is the colophon: 'Printed and Sold by William Bradford, Printer to Their Majesties, | King William and Queen Mary, at the Bible in New-York, 1693.' The three following leaves, containing Acts passed in 1694, seem to have been added after the Table of Contents was printed. For so much of the volume, the collation is tolerably plain: Title, 1 leaf; Table of Contents, 1 leaf; Acts, pp. 92; between pp. 68 and 69, An Act granting a Rate, &c. (Nov. 1692) 1 sheet (pp. 4) is inserted; after page 84 is 'A Catalogue of Fees,' &c., pp. 11, with the colophon, as above. The additions to Mr. Brinley's copy, irregularly paged, are as follows: Acts of 4th Assembly, 2d Session (Oct. 1694), pp. 4; 5th Ass. 1st Sess. (June, 1695), pp. 101–106, with colophon; 2d Sess. (Oct. 1695, misnamed '6th Assembly, 1st Session,') pp. 107–113; 3d Sess. (Mch. 1696), pp. 10, with colophon; 4th Sess. (Oct. 1696), pp. 6; 5th Sess. (Mch. 1697), pp. 5; 7th Ass., 1st Sess. [misprinted, 7th Sess.] Mch. 1699 to end of 4th [misprinted, 3d] Sess., Aug. 1701, pp. 119–176, with 10 pp. irregularly numbered, between pp. 156 and 157 (bis); 1st to 5th Sessions (Regno Annæ), Oct. 1702, to June, 1705, pp. 177–238 (and 233–238 repeated); and Sessions of June and Sept. 1706, and Sept. and Oct. 1708, pp. 30." The additions are the so-called Session Laws, which were paged continuously but issued separately. See also "Hist. Mag.," III. 174.

Digested by William Livingston and William Smith, Jr. The catalogue of the New York Historical Society claims to have a large paper copy; the earliest instance within our knowledge of a large paper copy of any work printed in New York.

The | Laws | Of His Majesties | Colony of New-York, | As they were Enacted by the Governour, Council | and General Assembly (for the time being), in divers | Sessions, the first of which began April 9th, 1691. | Printed by William Bradford, Printer to the Kings most Excellent | Majesty for the Colony of New-York. 1719. The irregular collation of this volume is suggestive of there being a series of Session Laws. This is the edition which was reprinted in London in 1719. See "Acts of Assembly," No. 53467, supra.

By John Torrey, M.D., F.L.S. Albany: Carroll and Cook, Printers. 1843. 2 vols., 4to, Engraved Title, pp. (4), ix, ix–xii, 484, 72 Plates; Vol. II. [Ibid.] pp. (4), 572, 88 Plates. 53788

This part embraces full descriptions of all the plants of the State, with remarks upon their habits, modes of growth, the means of cultivating and improving valuable plants, and of destroying the noxious or troublesome. The work is illustrated by figures of about 100 of the most important and interesting species. Of this a few copies were issued with the plates colored by hand. It is scarcely necessary to add that they are greatly superior to the plain copies.

Mineralogy of New York. ... By Lewis C. Beck. Albany. 1842. 4to, pp. xxiv, (2), 536, (4). 8 Plates. 53789

The Mineralogical Department gives a full account of the minerals and ores of the State, their analysis, important uses, etc., together with an interesting account of the Saline and other Mineral Springs of the State, many of which have obtained so much celebrity. The work contains a large amount of practical information on every part of the subject.

Geology of New-York. Part I. Comprising the Geology of the First Geological District. By William W. Mather ... . Al-

Geology ... . Part II. Comprising the Survey of the Second Geological District. By Ebenezer Emmons, M.D. ... Albany: Printed by W. & A. White & J. Visscher. 1842. 4to, pp. x, 437. 17 Plates. BA. 53791

Geology ... . Part III. Comprising the Survey of the Third Geological District. By Lardner Vanuxem. Albany: Printed by W. & A. White & J. Visscher. 1842. 4to, Engraved Title, pp. (6), 5–306, (1). 53792

Geology ... . Part IV. Comprising the Survey of the Fourth Geological District. By James Hall. Albany: Carroll and Cook, Printers. 1843. 4to, pp. xxii, 683, (1). 34 Woodcuts, 20 Plates and Maps. 53793

The Geological Department embraces a full account of the Primary and New York Systems, or of those from the oldest-known rocks to the carboniferous or coal-bearing period, together with the new red sand-stone and tertiary. It is illustrated by numerous interesting sections, views of scenery, etc., with woodcuts of more than 300 species of fossils characteristic of the strata. The rocks here described, together with their fossils, being little known in this country, and far more complete than the same formations in Europe, will render these volumes exceedingly interesting and important. It is the earliest work in this country where any systematic description of the older stratified rocks is given; and from the circumstance that these are better developed, and the series more complete, in New York than in any part of the known world, it forms the most interesting work yet published upon the popular science of Geology.

Agriculture of New-York: comprising an Account of the Classification, Composition and Distribution of the Soils and Rocks ... the Climate and the Agricultural Productions of the State. By Ebenezer Emmons, M.D. ... Albany: Printed by C. Van Benthuysen & Co. 1846–54. 5 vols., 4to. 53794

Vol. I. 1846, Engraved Title, pp. xi, 371. 21 Plates and colored Map.

Vol. II. 1849, pp. viii, 343, 50. 42 Plates.

Vol. III. 1851, Part 1, Text, pp. v, 340.

Vol. IV. or Part 2 of Vol. III., pp. vii. 99 Plates.

Vol. V. 1854, pp. viii, 272. 50 Plates.

Vol. I. contains a general account of the soils of the State, their composition and distribution, and their relations to the underlying formations. Vol II. is devoted mainly to the composition of the inorganic parts of vegetables. Vol. III. is devoted partly to the description and illustration of the fruits of the State, and partly to the principles of Practical Agriculture. Vol. IV. contains beautifully colored Plates of the fruits of the State. Vol. V. forms the entomological portion of the work, together with descriptions of the more common and injurious species of insects.

Palæontology of New York. Volume I. [and II.] Containing Descriptions of the Organic Remains of the Lower Division of the New York System (Equivalent of the Silurian Rocks of Europe). ... By James Hall. Albany: Printed by C. Van Benthuysen. 1847. 2 vols., 4to, pp. xxiii, 338, 87 Plates, and Plate 33* with descriptive letter-press. Vol. II. [Ibid.] 1852. Engraved Title, pp. (6), 362, (1). 85 Plates and letter-press.

Geological Survey of New York. Palæontology. Volume III. Containing Descriptions and Figures of the Organic Remains of the Lower Helderberg Group and the Oriskany Sandstone. 1855–1859. By James Hall. Albany: Printed by C. Van Benthuysen. 1859. Part 1. Text, pp. xii, 532, (1). Part 2. [Ibid.] 1861. 120 Plates and letter-press. 53796

Geological Survey ... . Palæontology. Volume IV. Part 1. Containing Descriptions and Figures of the Fossil Brachiopoda of the Upper Helderberg, Hamilton, Portage and Chemung Groups. 1862–1866. By James Hall. Albany, N. Y.: Printed by C. Van Benthuysen & Sons. 1867. 4to, pp. xi, (1), 428. 63 Plates and descriptive letter-press. 53797

Followed by Vol. IV., Part 2. Illustrations of Devonian Fossils: Corals of the Upper Helderberg and Hamilton Groups, Albany, 1876, 4to, 43 Plates, and another volume, pp. 7, 126 Plates.

The volumes on Palæontology contain full descriptions, with engraved figures, of more than 500 species of fossils, principally those found in the rocks intervening between the Primary and the Coal formation. The fossils of each particular rock or group are figured collectively, in the order of the series which they illustrate. The importance and interest in this portion of the Geological Department is, if possible, superior to all the others; giving a large number of entirely new forms of these ancient denizens of our globe, with their geographical distribution and geological range.

"The preparation of this splendid work by the ablest scientific men of the country has cost the State of New York more than 200,000 dollars, and is a good example of enlightened legislative liberality. As a work embracing every department of Natural History, it should find a place in all great libraries."

Coniers at the Sign of the Black-Raven* | in Duck-Lane, 1676. 4to, pp. (2), 6. 55060

First edition, of extreme rarity. The only copy I know belongs to Mr. C. H. Kalbfleisch. Reprinted with a variation in the title as:

News from | New-England, | Being | A True and last Account of the present Bloody Wars | carried on betwixt the Infidels, Natives, and the | English Christians, and Converted Indians of | New-England, declaring the many Dreadful | Battles Fought betwixt them: As also the many | Towns and Villages burnt by the merciless Hea- | thens. This edition has an additional paragraph on the last page, stating "There has been a treaty," etc. Of such excessive rarity that when, in 1850, Mr. Drake reprinted it, he supposed that Mr. J. C. Brown's was the only copy. It was reprinted as below:

News from New-England [as before]. Boston, N. E.: Reprinted for Samuel G. Drake. 1850. Sm. 4to, pp. 20. 55062

News from New England. Albany: Reprinted by Joel Munsell for W. E. Woodward. 1865. 4to, pp. 22. 55063

Sixty-four copies printed on one side of the paper only, of which four were printed on Whatman's drawing paper. Of this reprint there are two issues, the publisher—a druggist in Roxbury Mass.—thus explains the matter: "By permission of Mr. Drake 75 copies of this pamphlet were reprinted in quarto. So far as the printing was concerned the work was fairly done, and in a manner tolerably satisfactory, with the single exception of an error in the paging; but the sheets being entrusted for binding to a firm in Boston, the work was done in a manner so entirely unworkmanlike as to induce or rather compel me to destroy the entire edition with the exception of 15 copies, which are preserved to show how unfaithfully and shabbily a job can be done. Sixty copies are already destroyed, so that the two editions consist of 75 copies only." For a reply, see Vol. XIII., No. 52757.

A most rare and curious poem "Upon the Coale-pits about New Castle upon Tine," which appears to have been privately printed, by William Ellis, who was probably the author. It commences thus:

> "England's a perfect World; has Indies too—
> Correct your Maps: New Castle is Peru.
> Let th' haughty Spanyard triumph, till, 'tis told,
> Our sootie Min'rals purifie his Gold."

The original edition of the voyage for the discovery of the Magellan Straits, etc., performed by the two brothers Captains Nodal, with the original map, is one of the rarest books of its class. The map is almost always wanting, and is sometimes supplied by the reprint in a smaller form, from the second edition. In order that a purchaser may be certain as to the completeness of a copy, we append a more minute collation: 12 prel. leaves, viz.: engraved title with portraits of the two brothers Nodal; 'Fee de aprouacion,' 3 pp.; 'Suma del priuilegio,' 1 p.; 'Tassa,' 1 p.; 'Erratas,' 1 p.; 'A Don Fernando Carrillo,' 3 pp.; 'Al Lector,' 5 pp.; 'Advertencias,' 3 pp.; 'Variacion de la aguja,' 3 pp.; 'Reglas,' 2 pp.; Text, 65 numb. leaves; 'Tabla para saber las Horas,' etc., 1 leaf; 'Relacion ... de los Servicios de los Capitanes Bartolome Garcia de Nodal, y Gonçalo de Nodal hermanos,' leaves numb. 2–15. At fol. 35 there is a copperplate Map entitled 'Reconocimiento de los Estrechos de Magellanes,' etc., "I. de Courbes sculpsit," 13½ by 15⅓ inches. The strait of San Vincente had been traversed by Le Maire shortly before the brothers Nodal, and his name has remained to designate it. But the Spanish map has a special value of its own, and is more detailed than Le Maire's. Colonel Stanley's copy sold for £3 10s. See Trömel, No. 80, Rich, 158, Ternaux, 431.

Mr. Tiele, in describing the French edition of this voyage ("Mémoire Bibliographique," pp. 31–32), says he never saw the German version, which is abridged; and Camus, although he mentions several Dutch and French editions, does not speak of it; nor is it mentioned in the "Bib. Grenvilliana" (Vol. I., p. 192,) in the list of separate editions of portions of the "Great and Small Voyages" of De Bry. The Latin edition of the brothers De Bry ("Great Voyages," Part IX.) is said by Mr. Tiele to have been translated from this German version.

M. for Geo. Calvert* ... . 1653. 8vo, pp. (16), 270, (4). B., W. 55882

There is an error in the pagination, page 243 following 240. "Drawn up by the appointment of the General Court of Massachusetts, at a time when theological hair-splitting in the legislature held the place of modern log-rolling. Pynchon's book was forbidden to enter New England under penalty, and this censure was backed, in a long letter at the end, by five of the chiefest of the ruling Elders of Boston, rebuking the English Ministers who had recommended Pynchon's book. Nothing daunted two years later Pynchon hurled at the heads of the General Court, and Boston Elders, another book under a similar title."—STEVENS.

Observations and Annotations upon the Apologetical Narration, submitted to Parliament, the learned Divines of the Assembly, and all Protestant Churches here and abroad. London: Christopher Meredith. 1644. 4to. 56461

"The key-note of this conservative production is found in its last sentence, 'And finally, as for the latitude and tolerance, ye sue for, it is unjust and most pernicious, both to Christ's Church and the Kingdom.' The tenets, practices and apologies of the five authors of the 'Narration' are herein handled without gloves by the author who signs his preface 'A. S.' Throughout the book a great deal of theological mustard and vinegar is poured out against the New England Men, their inconsistencies and divisions. It was written while Roger Williams was in London, and no doubt the pungent passage on page 64 alludes to his expulsion by the Saints of Massachusetts, and Settlement in Rhode Island. 'If they [the New England Men] had the upper hand over us here, as there, they should send us all to some Isle of Dogs, as they have done others.'" —STEVENS.

In addition to the duties against which the colonists complained, their trade was greatly embarrassed by the multiplicity of bonds required in exporting and importing goods. The unlimited power given to officers of the customs, and of the advantage taken by these officials of their position, proved another serious injury to commerce. OCEOLA (N.) A Narrative of the Early Days and Reminiscences of Oceola Nikkanochee, Prince of Econchatti, a young Seminole Indian; Son of Econchatti-Mico, King of the Red Hills, in Florida; with a Brief History of his Nation, and his Renowned Uncle, Oceola, and his Parents; And Amusing Tales illustrative of Indian life in Florida. ... Written by his Guardian. London: Hatchard and Son. 1841. 8vo, pp. x, 228. 3 Plates.

Exceedingly interesting. "An imbecile old chief, called Enematkla, was the first to declare himself a traitor to the tribe, by affixing his sign-manual; he was followed by a few others of inferior grade, until it was submitted to Oceola, who, with all the pride of offended dignity thus offered to himself and his countrymen, with indignation sparkling in his eye, and a contemptuous curl of the lip, drew from his bosom a dagger, and with a countenance that seemed to strike terror into all by whom he was opposed, he hurled the trusty steel with such force into the hateful document, that it passed fairly through the table, exclaiming at the same time, 'There is my mark.'"

On the reverse of the title, "A Letter," etc., dated "Burlington the 12th, of the 5th. Month, 1682," signed "John Cripps." The signatures or marks of the Indian witnesses are inserted with the pen, there being no type for their characters. Only a few copies were printed. The history of the book is this: John Cripps, a Quaker in Burlington, New Jersey, 1682, wrote to a friend in London, enclosing the "Dying Words of the Indian King," and requesting him that, if they were printed, a few copies might be sent over to him. His curious letter is on the back of the title-page. Many tears, it is said, were shed over the King's grave, both by the Indians and English in the Quakers' church-yard at Burlington. [OLDMIXON (John).] The British Empire | in | America, | Containing | The History of the Discovery, | Settle | ment, Progress and present State of all the | British Colonies, | on the | Continent and Islands of America. | ... | Being an Account of the Country, Soil,

The dedication is signed by J. Oldmixon; but the work is often attributed to Herman Moll, who prepared the maps. It was reprinted in 1741, with considerable additions as below:

[OLDMIXON.] The British Empire|in|America,|containing| The History of the Discovery,|Settlement, Progress and State of the|British Colonies|on the|Continent and Islands of America.| ...|Second Edition, Corrected and Amended.|With the Continuation of the History, and the Variation in|the State and Trade of those Colonies, from the Year 1710|to the present Time. ...| London:|... J. Brotherton ... MDCCXLI. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxxiv, 567; (2), 478. 8 Maps. BA. 57157

Oldmixon's name is omitted in the dedication to this second edition, and the text differs in many particulars, and as both are frequently referred to, it often happens that the passages cited from one are not to be found in the other. In the first edition there is much relative to Pennsylvania, apparently derived from personal communication with William Penn, but it is omitted or abridged in the edition of 1741; while on the other hand, the history is continued in the latter down to the date of its publication. The story of William Penn and the Indian princess, as related by himself to the author, is first given in the second edition. So much as relates to Carolina is reprinted in Carroll's "Collections," Vol. II.

In volume VII. we have referred this book to [Oldmixon (John)], but we now believe it to be a German translation of Robert Blome's "English Empire in America."
